IN GENERAL:

I apologize for the delay in this letter. My Jan/Feb has been brutal with back-to-back trips to include the Shot Show. I have been working some long days trying to get things up and running.

TRAINING:

COURSE UPDATE(S):

Tactical Medical Course:

I was fortunate to assist Dr. Alan Frankfurt in running day 3 scenarios for his Tac Medic Course. The feedback I received from day 1/2 was outstanding. He took on 40 plus students for a first time course made it happen. Good job Doc.

RANGE UPDATE:

My final pine trees are being planted as I write. It has been raining here the past week and it will get them off to a good start.

My vehicle/mover range came out better than I expected. First, the Porta Target mover I purchased is great. I built a target frame that holds 4 targets at one time to keep multiple shooters active. We used it for both rifle and pistol, day and night from about 7 yards to 75. We calibrated it to a walk, jog and run speed.

Vehicle bailout drills worked well as did shooting and moving around them. Lost the back glass on one due to a line of sight/line of bore issue, but that is to be expected and the training range is the place to do it.

With the help of some local lawmen and civilian friends, we have started construction on the Shoot House. We made outstanding progress in one day and knocked out the exterior wall and five large rooms. I want to put a few more on before I wrap up this phase of construction.

EQUIPMENT:

I will post some new items that I have come across shortly. Also, the Eagle Active Shooter Bag is on there web site under new products.

IN CLOSING

Book

“Leadership and Training for the Fight” is doing well and I appreciate all the feedback. Again, feel free to shoot me any comments you have and I will keep them logged in a file for reference when I find time to edit the work.

Also, I have asked Author House to take the e-version off the market. It seemed some folks were passing it around and it came to a few close friends who told the senders to knock it off.
