The above link is to an article about how newly issued first aid kits saves lives during the Tucson shooting. I am glad to see that the word is finally getting out. Killing or subduing the bad guy is relatively easy. The work begins immediately after trying to undue the damage the have done.

Also, there have been a couple of accidental shootings involving weapons mounted pistol lights. I will study this a bit more, but I teach students to use their support thumb to activate the light and leave the trigger finger alone for its sole intended purpose of pulling the trigger. Grip switches require you to adjust your grip so as not to have a white light AD. This can also cause problems. More to follow on this.

MONTHLY PERSPECTIVE:

Captain Owen Honors was relieved as commander of the USS Enterprise over video “skits” that happened years ago. Incredible that we find time to waste along with what appears a phenomenal career over something so petty. South Korean commandos are busy killing Somali pirates and taking their ship back while we let the minorities of our country weaken our national defense.

First, for you non-military individuals reading this, it was a video skit. It was tame in comparison to those that were performed by students in my Ranger School class in the early 1980’s.

I am embarrassed, not by the videos, but by the cowardice of the high ranking military officers who threw Captain Owens under the bus and did not stand up for him. We must have one pussified Pentagon and General Officer Corp who would not fight for this man. All are more concerned about their promotions or retirement jobs than fellow officers. What people don’t get is that Democrats create a politically divisive military and all the ass sucking political types in the service trample each other trying to get to the top of the pile, no matter the cost.

Democrats are happy to use the military at a whim, but are also the first to crap on them when they have the opportunity. They attempt to destroy our military by internal politics. Many high ranking officers sell their souls and become politically correct versus standing for anything. This is just another example of the Democrats trying to dismantle our combat effective military.

As for the civilian media and liberal turds out there pressing this fight, you are just digging your own hole. If you have never served in the military, you should probably keep your mouth shut or ask someone has served. This is petty at best.

I am sorry to see this good man go. I only hope he is offered an incredible job with lots of family time and without the requirement of serving under spineless leaders which he is forced to work with now.

The Tucson shootings were a tragedy and my heart goes out to all who were affected, but I don’t put their loss any more significant than soldiers and LE dying daily to safeguard our way of life. I believe this is a wake-up call for congress and the liberal media as to how pissed off the American people are. The liberal media keeps pushing buttons and eventually unstable Americans who walk a fine line of sanity may cross over to the dark side and commit acts like this.

The president now calls for civility after two years of lies and left wing attacks, both in general and personal. Incredible. Now the president wants to focus on economics and jobs after two years of driving our economy into the dirt and bad mouthing our country abroad, etc. He is the supreme ignorant politician who hides his college transcripts and birth certificate because his status is a lie. Imagine a white president doing that. Another double standard delivered by the liberal and democrats of our nation. This is what we get for cultivating an entitlement generation of voters who believe they are owed something for stealing valuable oxygen from the rest of us.

MONTHLY INSPIRATION:

South Korean naval commandos take back their ship from Somali Pirates by killing several and capturing the rest. It would be nice to know that the US has a unit in place turning pirates into shark bait, but we can only hope.....

COURSE UPDATE(S):

I have received a great deal of feedback reference the PTC (PERSONAL TRAINING COURSE) in the future and limiting it to 5 students. My thoughts are that most folks don't know how to train or structure their training. In one week, I would cover the following major blocks of information with students:

- Tac Pistol
- Tac Rifle
- Combat Mindset
- Individual Tactical Training
- Weight Training
- Cardio Training

I am still working the details out on this course and the cost is yet TBD. I am still receiving feedback/input on this idea.

RANGE UPDATE:

Eric put in an electric shotgun thrower on the new shotgun range near the brick house. It has a wobbler attachment with remote. If you want to use it, get a class from Eric on how to load, power it up and clear it.

The sniper ranges are out to 600 and I will wait until next year to see if we can push them out a bit further. I will be researching purchasing pine trees over the next couple of weeks to prepare for planting in the bottom. The pines up top have shot up with every rain. They are looking good.

Should an agency or group wish to rent the facility, feel free to contact us for rates. This includes the ranges, new property, classroom and bunkhouse.
