GENERAL INFORMATION:

The Rifle DVD is now out. If you are coming to either my Tactical Rifle or Pistol Instructor course, I would recommend buying the DVD, review it and start to shoot the drills and standards. The learning curve for the class will not be so steep.

If you like the DVD's and you have the time, go to www.amazon.com and post a review to help fellow shooters make a decision on the purchase.

LE CORNER:

TBD....

MONTHLY PERSPECTIVE:

INTERNATIONAL POLICY

- LIBYA
- SYRIA

.....

•
•
•
•
•
•
•

- YEMEN
- PAKISTAN
- AFGHANISTAN

What all these countries have in common is that we were not and are still not able to issue or articulate any type of structured policy to deal with them. The first three are part of what I call a political domino effect which rarely happens. We do not have vision or the resources or structures in place to take positive action.

Pakistan, a country that harbors terrorists and is politically rude to say the least needs to have any financial aid from the U.S. cut. We need to put their nuts in a vise and slowly turn the handle. Maybe even offer to arm India with a few nukes to ensure they go away quickly should they start aggressive action.

As for Afghanistan, they are going through the typical thugs with guns stage of country development, but they need to be put on notice. We have tried as a nation to help them and have sacrificed our service personnel for the cause. It was good try and if it is time to walk away, the cause was worthy. There will be more countries like Afghanistan that we will try and help in the future in order to help create a more stable world for all of us to live in.

Why try again? That is what real leaders do. The option is to let the world slide into chaos and take two steps back. I feel that we as a nation have the resources talent to help shape a better world. All we need to do is to lead by example.

Finally, the leadership and peoples of these struggling counties are not stupid. They see our lack of political will and indecisiveness and understand that our president is a pompous and arrogant person who has no experience or depth of character. He is the result of an affirmative action program and votes were rallied from the Oprah/reality TV generation of Americans who don't have a clue as to what life is about and still believe they are owed something for being born in this country.

NATIONAL POLICY

- MEXICO
- IMMIGRATION
- ATF'S GUNS FOR CARTELS PROGRAM
- GAS PRICES

I understand that the president cannot be blamed for everything, but when surround yourself with liberal scum and appoint mentally, tactically and technically ill-equipped leaders to run major programs and agencies in the U.S., it is hard to reassign blame.

We have allowed Mexican troops and police officers to enter U.S. soil illegally and armed on many occasions. This hands-off policy is putting America and Americans at risk. The ATF has provided countless weapons to the cartels and our enemies. Had an American citizen done the same, they would be in jail. It was almost a buy one, get one free program. Where are all the anti-gun retards on this one?

These "short" lists are just a few problems we can read about in the media. We have a liberal media that generally protects the democrats and viciously attacks conservative Americans (Sarah Palin's e-mails). It would probably scare most of us to know what is really going on in our government....

MONTHLY INSPIRATION:

Quote from Larry, the Cable Guy

"Even after the Super Bowl victory of the New Orleans Saints, I have noticed a large number of people implying with bad jokes that Cajuns aren't smart. I would like to state for the record that I disagree with that assessment. Anybody that would build a city 5 feet below sea level in a hurricane zone and fill it with Democrats is a damn genius."
