GENERAL INFORMATION:

The pistol DVD is out. I just blessed the rifle video and it should be out shortly. If you are coming to either my Tactical Rifle or Pistol Instructor course, I would recommend buying the DVD, review it and start to shoot the drills and standards. The learning curve for the class will not be so steep.

LE CORNER:

MONTHLY PERSPECTIVE:

Obama's Hands Off Leadership Style

Sorry Mr. President, it does not work when you have multiple factions of politics going in several different directions. Hands off leadership works when you have a clearly defined mission, your assets have clear guidance and you are working toward the same goal.

In the case of our country, Democrats head one direction, Republicans the other and Independents still another. Your job is to give guidance and get them all merge on the right course which best serves and protects the American people.

In regards to leadership Mr. President, you are a failure. Donald Trump said it best when he described Jimmy Carter as being worst president and that you have now beat him out for that honor.

You are the result of an affirmative action program and the ignorant Americans that voted for you are getting a taste of your ignorance. It is now hitting them in their pocketbooks. You are consistent in that anything that you have touched, you have been late to act, failed to act, mismanaged or screwed up.

Donald Trump

Political analysts don't understand his popularity. No kidding. This is probably because they are used to worthless sacks of crap who we know are lying when we see their lips move...

I listened to a couple of interviews Mr. Trump gave and he is spot on. He is a successful businessman who understands money and the BS involved when dealing with the federal government. He calls it like it is and that is refreshing. He has had to earn his money by being hard working, articulate and accurate. This probably does not qualify him to be a politician which is a good thing.

Political commentators dismiss him and that is sad. He has had to make consistent intelligent business decisions on a case by case basis. I would love to see someone like that elected as president, a person that has no ties to any party and does the right thing for the country that they believe in. I taste a bit of vomit in the back of my throat everytime I hear the word politician.

Birther Bill

Yes, even a black man running for president with an African heritage should have to show his birth certificate before being sworn into the most powerful position in the world. This should include college transcripts. Hell, I have to show a driver's license when writing a check. Why have we become so politically correct and ignorant? Requiring showing proper identification does not make me a racist as the liberal scum suggest (Whoopie Goldberg among others), but rather it ensures we have a standard as Americans.

I usually don't watch Greta Van Susteren on Fox, but she did a good piece on Donald Trump's press interview reference the birth certificate issue and President Obama's White House press conference.

Donald Trump claimed that he is the one that forced President Obama to give up his birth certificate. Good for him. He was direct, articulate and took little crap from the press. He had them with a Mike Tyson roll up against the ropes. They are not used to that.

President Obama on the other hand, had the White House press corps drinking his Kool-Aid like a neutered lap dog. Not only did they drink the Kool-Aid, they showered in, gulped it down and then peed it out grape. It reminded me of the German people in the late 1930's, listening to Hitler, engrossed to the point where all reason is gone. I am not comparing President Obama to Hitler, but he has the ability to sway an audience of weak minded types who fail to ask, "How are we going to get to this place you are describing" using this road map from hell and a broken down bicycle you call an administration. The camera did a nice close up of President Obama and he worked his magic on the cult like press corps.

It is incredible that so many people in America want to live in fantasy land, but the President cannot articulate how to get there. We should rename him the "Bungler."

RANGE UPDATE:

Eric is finished with the Sporting Clays stations. He has put in two machines per stations and will focus on doing special event shoots along with a Shotgun Sportsman Club. We did our first charity shoot on this past Saturday. We have several groups already booked to shoot the course.

We wanted to ensure that all three ranges could be safely used at the same time. The plate racks were pushed back about 7 yards and a berm on the right side was added.

With the addition of the new Sporting Clays, I wanted to keep the 150 range but needed to change the fields of fire and add a berm. I wanted to ensure that both ranges could be used at the same time.

Should an agency or group wish to rent the facility, feel free to contact us for rates. This includes the ranges, new property, classroom and bunkhouse.
