INFORMATION LETTER/UPDATE:

GENERAL INFORMATION:

It was a good month and I ran several small classes and participated in a training briefing for doctors on how to train for the unexpected medical emergencies that arise during routine operations.

TACTICAL CORNER:

Yep. It has happened before and will happen again. Know your irons and keep them zeroed.

Next LE, where were all the tourniquets on the victims of the Boston bombings? Belts and straps are nice, but we know the answers to the test. You have pretty uniforms, but when the shit hits the fan, they are lacking...

INSTRUCTOR NOTES

This is another reason I do not wrap my hand around the mag well when firing.

MONTHLY PERSPECTIVE:

The Boston Bombings...

May 1, 2013

As I heard the news of the Boston Bombings, I quietly noted it and kept on about my business as usual. It did not surprise me nor did I get overly emotional about it. My blood pressure did not rise. I have known it was going to happen and knew it was just a matter of time.

I can attribute this and other incidents to many factors such as Americans and their cluelessness and selfish approach to life. I could attribute it to our President who have has dropped the ball regarding his duty to protect Americans by neutering I.C.E and allowing everybody and their brother to come to this country with no documentation or accountability. Finally, I can point fingers at the Media for not addressing relevant issues and problems and holding people accountable.

Americans are more concerned about why they cannot smoke dope anytime and anywhere they want than the security of our nation. Half care more about what the government will give them rather than why the government has failed to do their job and protect them. They are selfish and clueless. We as Americans argue about gun control and allow terrorists to plan, prepare and carry out attacks. Our government wants to take away our guns. What struck me as a different culture was that one armed terrorist locked down the city of Boston. This is incredible.

People were afraid to come out of their homes. I hope this would not happen in Texas. In our neighborhood, men would come out with their rifles and help to clear our neighbor's houses and property of any potential threats. I am not waiting for the police to come if my family is in danger, this is my job and as a self-reliant American. It is my duty to ensure their safety. Liberals want a police state where when they whine and snivel and want the government to come wipe their butts for them and also protect them at all costs, even at the cost of their freedom.

When you give a government all the power and responsibility, they can take everything from you to include your life. This is why you stay self-reliant and well-armed. Cowering in my house is not for me. In the end, the police found the terrorist from a tip delivered by an observant citizen. The people of Boston allowed the police to order them from their houses at gun point without a warrants. This is a dangerous precedent.

Our President has allowed this to happen by opening our borders and not allowing I.C.E. (Immigration and Customs Enforcement) to do their job. In our small town we probably have 800 or more Somali's that the chicken factories brought in to work. They are not properly documented and ICE cannot go into workplaces. Many of the Somalis get fired and then we as Americans have to support them because they are here now. Still, they have no documentation. This is how terrorists get into our country and stay. This is how they quietly plan, prepare and attack us.

In the end, a majority of the major media networks have lost their way and sold their souls for profit and a wrong set of ideals. Their egos will not allow them to call it what it is- terrorism. We have forgotten 9/11 and that these same people have struck us years ago. Our lack-luster President will not call the Army Major who slaughtered American Soldiers at Ft. Hood a terrorist and who has yet to go on trial.

Denial is what happened in Boston. I am still not emotional about it. My heart goes out to an innocent little boy who was in the wrong place at the wrong time. The other was a police officer who walked into a situation he was not prepared or trained for. Liberals and democrats just don't get it. The terrorists are impatient and are getting tired of being pacified and will probably conduct more acts in the future. They have had five years of planning and preparation to begin their attacks with no external pressure from our current administration.

If Democrats and liberals had any discipline to them, they might go somewhere. They fail partly because they do not ever establish any type of productive discipline early on in their lives and think they can lead via osmosis and by simply "believing" they are smarter or know the answers. In fact they cost more American lives by their nativity and arrogance.

In my short time on this earth, I see two different mindsets, liberal and conservative. Conservative values are established through trial and error and proven past performance. Conservatives understand the work, thought process and logic that enabled our nation to stand where it is.

The above liberal inhabits Colorado and all a police officer could do was to write him a ticket. This is the trash I would want to expose my family to. He is a scab on the ass of life and the police have to routinely put up with this garbage for a human being.

Liberals on the other hand have little self or mental discipline. They will lie, cheat and steal to attain their ends. They will plant this corrupt mental seed into their offspring to carry on their lazy ways.

In the end it strikes me as being about how the two groups think people should evolve. Democrats and liberals believe that the government should provide unlimited safety nets for unlimited undisciplined behavior. Liberals always want someone there to catch them at all costs, even if they lose their freedom.

Conservatives believe in the self-development of man and self-reliance. We become stronger on our own with less supervision, more self-discipline and less overall control. This includes the responsibility to know how to protect yourself and your neighbors.

In the end I believe in the latter. I know from being out in the real world that governments have killed more people than any other factor in history. Giving too much power to governments to include your responsibility of personal protection can get you killed if the government so chooses.

One good point that has come out of this liberal gun grab mentality is that Americans are better armed than any time in history. They continue to buy guns and ammo at an unprecedented rate and the training business is the best I have seen it.

China established gun control in 1935. From 1948 to 1952, 20 million political dissidents, unable to defend themselves, were rounded up and exterminated.

This is why Americans should stay well armed, well trained and well supplied with personal ammunition. Unfortunately, the world is a scary place unless you are mentally, tactically, technically and physically ready for it.

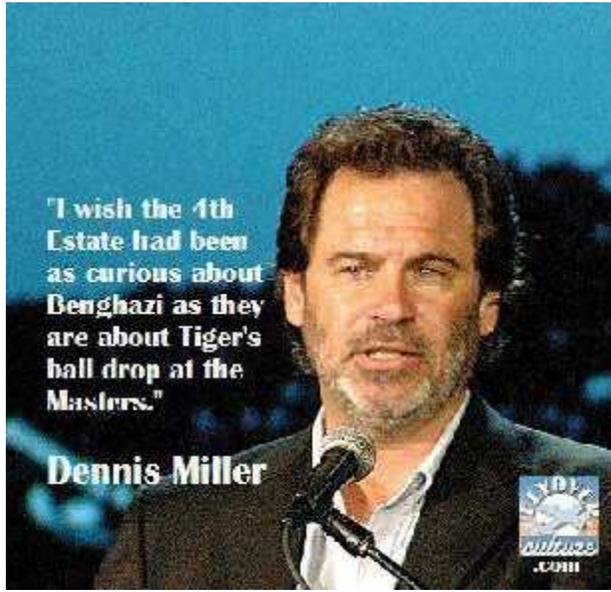

This 17 year old "animal" named De'Marquis Elkins shot and killed an innocent 13 month old baby in a stroller and injured the mother in Brunswick, GA this week. (NOTE: When Mother said she didn't have any money, he turned and shot her baby in the face)

When Obama breaks the economy, they are coming for you...When Obama confiscates your guns...this is the kind of bag of shit that is still going to have his weapons...When guns are banned, the criminal element will import them into this country by the truckload...Because the risk will be well worth the profit...just like it is with drugs...And who will they be selling those imported weapons to? Killers like the one you just read about above...You had better hang on to your weapons...Because if you don't, you WILL be facing criminals like this one, unarmed...

Yes, the liberal media tends to hide stories like the above one. This savage needs to be destroyed like a bad dog, quickly, efficiently and with no mercy.

The media in our country has lost their way and is corrupt, cowardly and lazy. If it does not fit their political agenda or ideology, they do not report it. They pad their careers and reputations on those that have gone before them and do little now to earn their keep.

As I send this letter to my webmaster, the headline news is more interested in a gay basketball player going public than, Benghazi, the Ft. Hood murderer or chemical weapons being used in Syria.

RANGE UPDATE:

We are continuing to upgrade the target house....

CLASSROOM/ LODGE:

No changes

EQUIPMENT:

Shooting Support Bags/Triad Tactical

<http://www.triadtactical.com/home.php>

I purchased a couple of bean bags for my sniper and hunting rifles. They are small, compact and come about $\frac{3}{4}$ full. I am able to put a piece of 550 cord around one and firm it up on both ends for any height adjustment. I can also put a snap link into the end of the 550 and carry it on my ruck, rifle stock or body.

Triad also makes a tapered bag in large and small sizes. I would use the small in the field and the large for general shooting off a bench.

READING/MISC. INFORMATION

More books stacking up...

CLASS PAYMENTS

You will have a slot in the course when I receive payment for the class. In the case of an agency, when they officially request an invoice. I have had too many individuals not show up lately and I intend to put a stop to it.

I would prefer you send a check as the credit card costs for processing are substantial.

IN CLOSING

Thanks and we look forward to seeing you all soon.
