INFORMATION LETTER/UPDATE:

GENERAL INFORMATION:

Happy New Year. Thanks for the great year and I look forward to another great year as we shape the calendar.

In the future, we will no longer hand out disks/CD's with class powerpoint. In an effort to go green and save money, we will have a stand-alone computer with class information on it and students can either download the information to a DVD/CD/Hard or Thumb drive when coming to or leaving a class. I will still have paper manuals for the short term.

TACTICAL CORNER:

Nothing at this time.

INSTRUCTOR NOTES:

When you have a bad tire on a car, you do not move it to another wheel, you get rid of it. This also applies to people who do not perform. Why would you want to stick someone at or running the range or in another key position who cannot successfully do their job? All this tells new recruits is that you do not have a standard and will not take out the trash when necessary because of your weak leadership. You can also "upgrade" people in certain positions if the current individuals are not cutting it by making the position a priority slot during your leadership tenure.

MONTHLY INSPIRATION

MONTHLY PERSPECTIVE:

CONGRESS AND THEIR OWN SELF INTEREST

I resent the comparison
Of this Congress to a Drunken Sailor on Shore Leave,
When I run out of money,
I quit spending.

I can only say we have a “few” leaders in congress that are looking out for the best interests of the American people and not just themselves and their jobs.

It is time to start thinning the herd in the next election. Most are worthless and need to be culled from any type of leadership in our country. Some of our elected officials have set up

December 30, 2013

Page 4

“voting pockets” of their type people who ensure that they are loyal to them and do not hold them accountable.

Further, any Republicans that supported cutting military retirements need to be voted down.

NSA and the MEDIA

What the average American does not understand about the current democratic/liberal thought process is the danger it brings to our lives.

Under conservative administrations, security apparatuses are built to deter threats both foreign and domestic. Problems occur when immature liberals come into power and abuse it. The NSA power is far reaching and we still do not know its full extent. Not only have we pissed off the other countries in the world, we have cheapened our status as a world power. We do not have prestige in this world but only money to throw at countries for their loyalty. That money does not go far. They have realized our current administration is a lack-luster bunch of incompetents with no depth of experience or maturity.

As for Edward Snowden, I am torn on his actions. President Obama said there were mechanisms in place for him to voice his concern. I really doubt it. Liberals want to grow big government to control the people and consolidate their power. That is what is truly frightening about this entire mess.

Enemies of freedom, then and now.

Under one administration these organizations might legitimately work while under another, it might be abused. The longer one political party has in power, the more time it has to seed their own people into or over these organizations and implant their own agenda. This is dangerous. Think about the IRS abuse of power as one example.

It is the media's job to keep us informed and when they roll over to either political party, the average American becomes in peril. Yes, their job is to protect the common man and woman. The mainstream media has continually rolled over to the current administration like a cheap whore. They have sold out for what, I do not know.

Sniveling Minority Groups

Recently "Phil" of the Duck Dynasty fame has been attacked for speaking his mind and having an opinion. This is both sad and dangerous. I am neutral on gays as I grew up in San Diego and there are large communities of them there. They are people too, but should not be outraged if someone does like them or their lifestyle as they are fortunate to live in a country that allows them to live free and protects their right.

As for the gay and other minorities in our country, I grow weary of their sniveling. We have a country where people from other countries risk their lives to here and to better themselves and their families. Many races and people of varied backgrounds come to our country and succeed.

Jesse Jackson voiced his opinion about Phil and he is another clueless politician with his own agenda. Phil gave a living history of his youth and growing up and how things were in his particular situation. Jesse Jackson is a clown without a circus, an assclown to be more specific and a piss poor representation of the black race.

When we can no longer have an "opinion" or view and we are attacked, the thought police are here. Imagine that, under a liberal administration to boot.

Obamacare

Obamacare is coming unglued. It was an unrealistic ideal with no solid way to implement, coupled with a gross lack of planning. I am glad young Americans are suffering because of it as it may cause them to vote in the future with some thought instead of for who they think is popular. Yep, all you young Americans, get the Vaseline ready....

December 30, 2013

December 30, 2013

As for our youth, parents went wrong. Many parents who succeeded in life did not want their kids to have it rough and spoon feed them. As a result we have a generation who is coddled, spoon-fed or never required to grow up until in their 30's. We have bred and nurtured a generation of clueless knuckleheads who believe reality TV is real life.

WTF went wrong?

Finally, we will not be consumed by some outside army or country, but from within by continuing to vote "dumb." Hillary is already posturing for the presidency. Yep, she is another Democrat that has done nothing. As Americans, we have not grown or evolved during Obama's term, rather we have lost credibility.

 HILLARY CLINTON'S GRAB LIFE

We cannot continue to elect arrogant and evil leaders with their own agenda. This includes you Paul Ryan.

ON A LIGHTER NOTE:

TRAINING:

In regards to my Long Range Hunter class, I suggest students maximize the training time by bringing a scope on their rifle that has vertical ranging lines, tic marks or mil-dots. On day two we shoot at to 700 yards. The system we use can be applied to any weapon system, but with standard crosshairs and an average caliber, you can only hold off to about 400 yards.

RANGE UPDATE:

December 30, 2013

Page 12

Above, we have expanded the range next to the PD range to accommodate more shooters

We removed the old roof prop from the left side of sniper hill and will be putting an overhead cover up in its place shortly so shooters can engage the 800 yard steel.

December 30, 2013

Page 13

Finally, we cleared the brush and smoothed it out to the right of the 600/700 yard berms so it can be bush hogged and maintained. It also gives a much cleaner shot to the 800 yard steel.

EQUIPMENT:

I have written many articles for magazines, websites and the like and I am looking at a goal of writing one article a month and posting it on my site. I will either do this or submit them to a gun magazine. Below is a list that I have been asked about:

- Gas vs. Bolt precision rifles
- Optics to include zero mag, fixed and variable
- Slings and sling points
- Lubrication
- Flash hidens/muzzle brakes
- Misc. equipment

As for equipment, I get a great deal that comes our way. Many folks want an instant endorsement. I like to test stuff for months before I give my seal of approval. Most of the equipment I come in contact with is quality, but needs some tweaking.

I like folks to purchase one time and be happy with the purchase.

You will have a slot in the course when I receive payment for the class. In the case of an agency, when they officially request an invoice. I have had too many individuals not show up lately and I intend to put a stop to it.

I would prefer you send a check as the credit card costs for processing are substantial.
