INFORMATION LETTER/UPDATE:

GENERAL INFORMATION:

A crew came together and put a new floor in the target house this past month and that concludes our winter project list. Now we can focus on teaching and routine maintenance.

TACTICAL CORNER:

As the current political regime attempts to exert its will against the American people for both political and personal gain, state and local law enforcement agencies should be sensitive as to who they align themselves with.

Most recently with the Bundy Ranch episode, Las Vegas Metro's SWAT van was seen at this political crisis site. While I have heard they have an exceptional team, their Chiefs and Commanders may want to rethink who they align themselves with and if the mission is viable for a SWAT callout. In the end, Bundy Ranch was about cows grazing on government land and taxes. When the political powers to be can escalate a federal show of force that is uncalled for and then local LE agrees to jump on the band wagon, it only serves to diminish their reputation. Remember, you can get painted with the same brush as the Feds.

Americans are fed up with liberals who are angry they cannot have their way. These liberals dislike that our country has laws which protect the American people, yet they routinely attempt to circumvent them. Our current crop of politicians think little of keeping our country on the right course and believe politics is a game of power and self-wealth. They do not understand the slow boiling anger of the average American who has a good opportunity of snapping back one day.

In the past, patrol officers could have been used to deal with the crowds at the Bundy site. Ensure your cause is just and that you are not being used as a "political tool." You can say no and you can vote with your feet. When you escalate, the American people will escalate. Fight the good fight and not the political one.....

MONTHLY PERSPECTIVE:

Our country has unlimited potential in brain power, human quality, natural resources and wealth.

Yet we squander it.

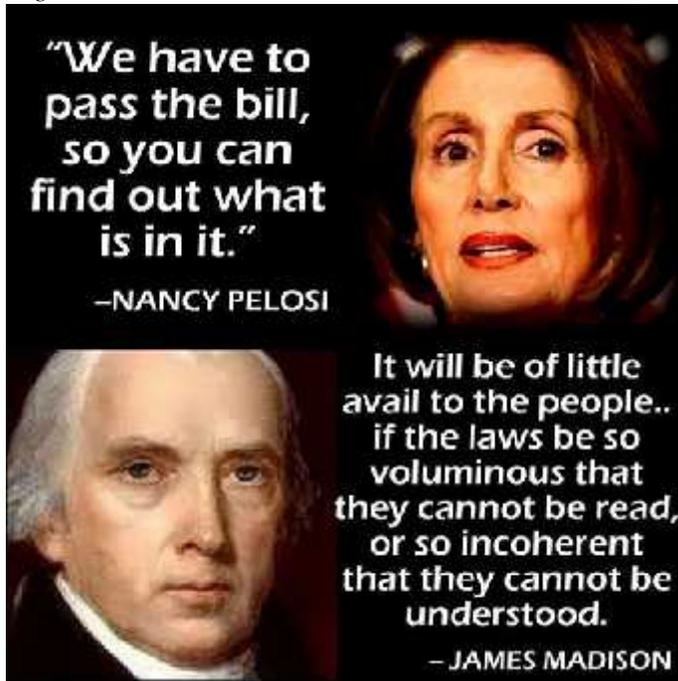

We elect lack luster leaders with their own agendas who have no morals or work ethic. They see political office as a way to make money and gain more personal wealth, like they need more.....

I had the opportunity to host some Republican Legislators at CSAT a couple of months ago and I was sorely disappointed at their quality. So much so that I did not even give them business cards. It was more of an entertainment session to speak of, filling some of their afternoon time. It reminded me of a hybrid fraternity. I never even got a thank you after the event from the coordinator.

As a result, I went to the local Registrar of Voters at the courthouse and asked to reclassify as a "Conservative Independent." She politely informed me that in Texas that you are what you vote and do not need to register with one party or the other. I have had it with both parties and it is my opinion is that 20% of the politicians are probably okay, but 80% need to be voted out to include term limits being set.

If we continue to put up self-serving leaders who look after themselves before the American people, the people will always lose.

Further, when undisciplined leaders are elected, they abuse the power they are entrusted with.

Many of politicians feel that they are above the law. They should have to endure the same systems that they put on the American people. Whether it be federal surveillance or health care, until we have one standard, they will always get preferential treatment.

As for world affairs, it only too evident our government is an unguided missile. The world is generally in chaos at one level or another. We must be proactive or we will be reactive in how we deal with issues. We must plan and think ahead. Installing ambassadors who have no history in foreign relations, but were good donors to your political campaign is a train wreck waiting to happen.

Not only is President Obama being spanked, but the U.S. and the American people are being schooled because we put unqualified and inexperienced leaders in positions they are not ready for.

With all that is going on in the world, the Federal Government wants to make a show of force in Nevada against an American with a tax complaint. Yet we do not show the same force on our southern border. Federal agencies with tactical teams need to wake up and understand that you can be used as a political tool. Some missions are downright wrong and you can walk away or as I have said, “vote with your feet.” Be careful of the fight you pick, you might get an opponent that is a multi-tour combat vet and that cares little about your brand new pretty green untested Federal SWAT uniform and escalates where you should not want to go.

	OBAMA TO ISRAEL: "You have NO RIGHT to your borders!"
	OBAMA TO UKRAINE: "You have EVERY RIGHT to your borders!"
	OBAMA TO USA: "What borders?"

And finally, NYPD has stopped their surveillance programs on Muslims....

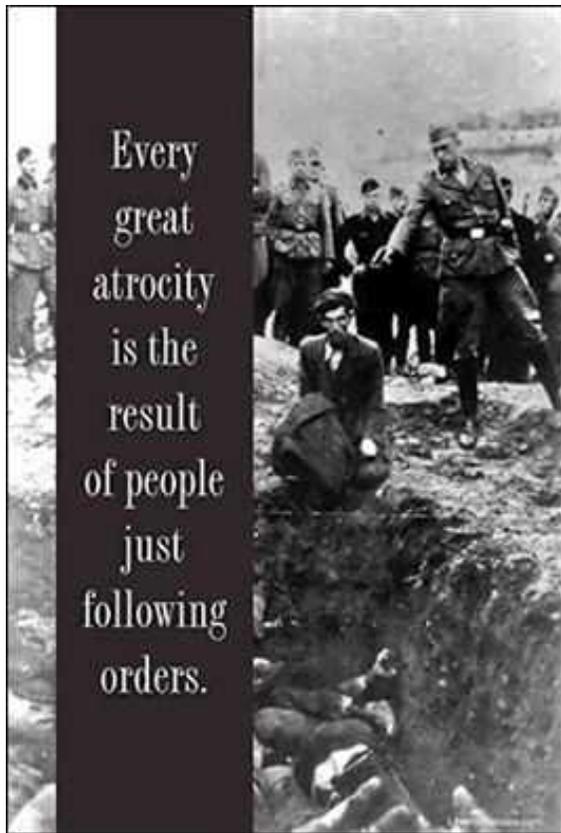

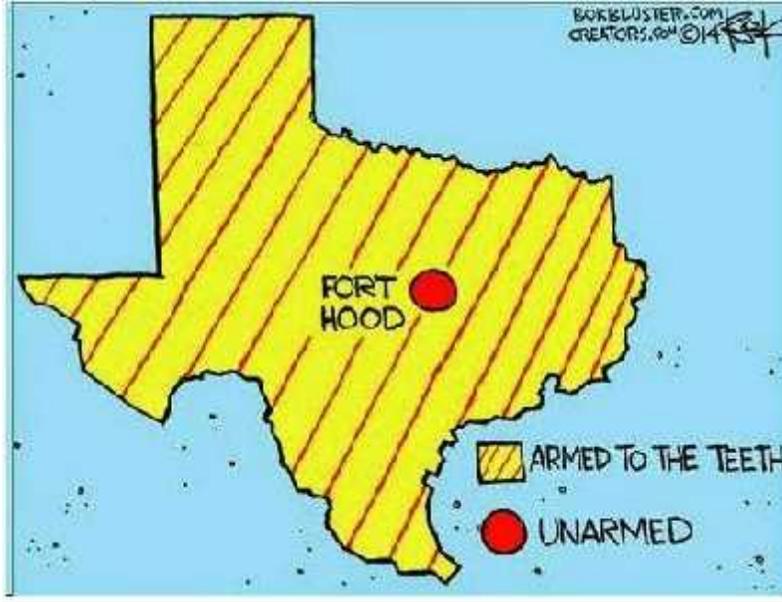

I'M NOT SAYING THAT ALL MUSLIMS ARE TERRORISTS
But whenever there's a terrorist attack no one ever suggests it's the Presbyterians who did it.

RHS (Reversible Hand Stop). It will retail for $39.95 and will be distributed exclusively through RSR Group. Most folks will use it as a hand stop under the rail.

Todd's website will be www.zerobravo.com

Todd formerly of PWS has started his own company and one of his first new products is a hand stop or reference point for your key mod rail system. I use it as a finger stop to pull back on with my non-firing hand and as a reference point.

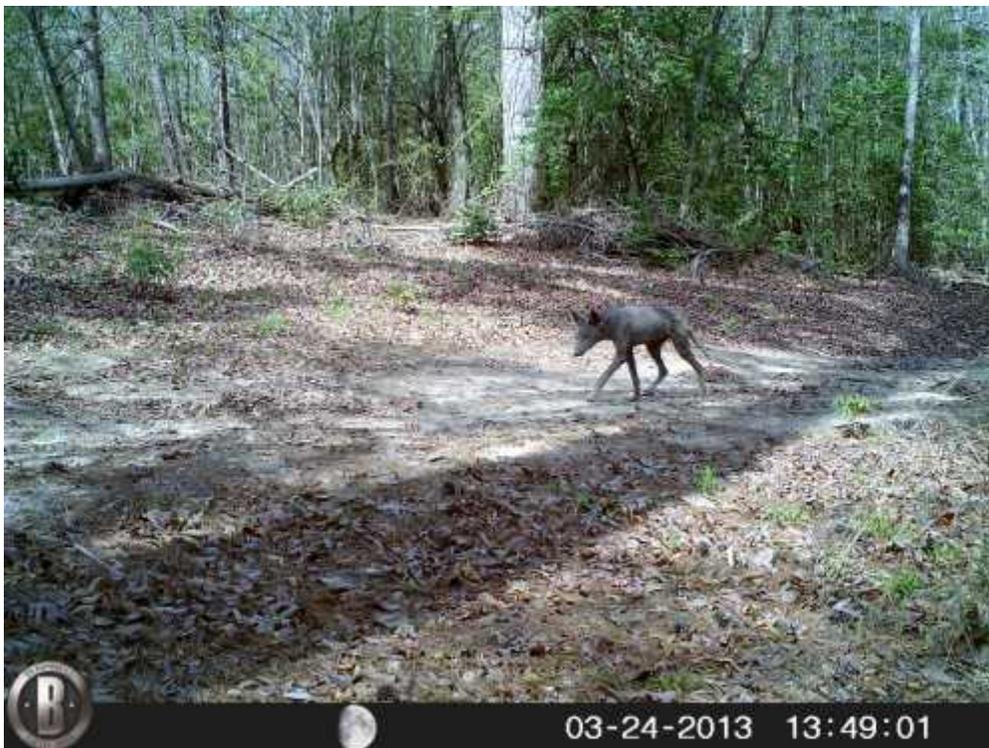

I broke down and purchased a Vortex PSTF1-M 4 X 16, EBR MRAD Scope and have been quite pleased with it. It allows for faster correction changes and the first focal plane keeps your crosshairs in relationship to your mil-dot hold. This way you can do a mil-dot hold on any power and the relationship will be the same. Traditional scopes require the mil-dot hold to be used on the same power as zeroing or your shots will be off.

With .36" click corrections and the same plane reticle, you can make corrections on your turrets by noting the impact of the round on your reticle. It is that easy.

More books stacking up...

CLASS PAYMENTS

You will have a slot in the course when I receive payment for the class. In the case of an agency, when they officially request an invoice. I have had too many individuals not show up lately and I intend to put a stop to it.

I would prefer you send a check as the credit card costs for processing are substantial.

IN CLOSING

Thanks and we look forward to seeing you all soon.
