INFORMATION LETTER/UPDATE:

GENERAL INFORMATION:

The fall training cycle is in full swing and weather has been great. If you are coming to classes from now until December, pack some snivel and rain gear just in case.

MONTHLY INSPIRATION

MONTHLY PERSPECTIVE:

Assimilation

When foreign individuals and families come to our country, they come for several reasons:

- Provide for their families abroad
- Try to change America to fit their beliefs and interests
- Start a new life with their families, contribute to the betterment of the U.S. and become Americans

The first two above are takers and liberals. Democrats would welcome them not understanding the impact and ramifications. People who wish to take from our country and not give back are not welcome. Democrats and liberals see them as another “vote.” These types do not contribute and should not be allowed to vote.

As for those who come to our country and wish to change it, fuck you. Stay in the shit hole you came from and change your country for the better. You are probably too weak to do this and that is the reason you are coming here. The path of least resistance. We do not need you, so stay home.

As for the third group, myself and other conservatives welcome you. Just learn the language and teach it to your kids. Doing this shows you are serious and that you want to be Americans. Millions of others have done it already.

The Black vote

Liberals seized upon the opportunity to add a voter base to their part without educating that population base. Instead they capitalize on of the ignorant there and do nothing to improve educational or living conditions. As long as they can swing a vote every election with a promise and a cell phone, they are content to leave them ignorant.

Many good Black Americans have risen up and integrated into America. Many others are stuck in the hoods living in hate because democrats and liberals will not help them nor get them on the right track to success. It will take “tough love” policies to do this, something liberals are too afraid to do as they may lose votes. Democrats and liberals are keeping many Americans “slaves” as a result.

Education

“We have polluted our own well.”

I use this term to describe the internal disintegration of our nation as a result of laziness and corrupt moral and social values.

Much of our problem lies within our educational system. Our colleges and universities are on one track while our businesses and economy are on another. Rarely do they cross. If you consider students a “product” for future business, we are not getting our monies worth out of the college production factories in our country.

One of the problems is the quality of professors and lack of work ethic. Some really believe in teaching while others look at it as a job. Some professors are lazy and enjoy the sheltered life style and the ability to spew their personal beliefs onto our naive youth. Also, do away with tenure. Either you produce or you do not produce. You should not be protected when you do not do your job.

A professor should be required to work a minimum of five years in the field that they are teaching. This would help eliminate the “straight line academic students” who go from student to professor with no life experience.

President Obama is one of those students who the system passed because he was either a minority or a foreign exchange student. You can see the effect of electing a former college professor to lead our country, one that had no work or life experience. It has been a train wreck from day one, both internally and internationally.

The sad part is that our president is a result of America’s broken educational system. A man who is dumber than shit was passed through colleges with no remorse because of his skin color. As a result, he has degraded our country by his consistent failures. We currently have more unresolved scandals than any time in history.

Further, we need to get rid of affirmative action. Students need to earn their education on their own merits and not their skin color. Again, we have proved it does not work and I will cite the case of our current president as part of the problem.

the Bomber Jacket on a Jackass

Muslim Issues

Muslim issues will become our issues if we do not stop them. Work place violence in Oklahoma? Bullshit. Islamic extremism. It is time to draw the line and make a stand against such people. Deport them or jail them.

Wishful thinking will not protect Americans. They have a proven track record of hate....

Humans that allow this and do not stand up to this evil deserve to die. Any religion that condones this needs to perish.

Our Muslim president can only hide his true religion for so long.

VP Joe Biden's Son

Typical political bullshit and dishonor. When Joe Biden's son came up hot on a drug test for cocaine, he was honorably discharged. Just another elitist turd...
