INFORMATION LETTER/UPDATE:

MONTHLY INSPIRATION

Americans need to hang tough and weather this liberal storm of BS that has been plaguing our country. It will come to end shortly and conservatives need to remember that when you do not vote, you do not have a say in the system.

MONTHLY PERSPECTIVE:

FRANCE RADICAL ISLAM

The goat humping sand flees of Islam are at it again in France. I don't think my blood pressure got up as a result of this attack. Europe has been quietly allowing these savages to plan, prepare and attack them. Everyone acts surprised and shocked.

Attacks are going to happen again and it will happen here. Our Muslim president has been letting them in our country with the help of fellow Democrats. The difference is that our American police have been practicing Active Shooter Response since Columbine. It started with four person team, then two and now single officer response. Remember what one traffic cop's actions did in Garland, Texas recently. Our patrol officers keep breaching equipment in their cars to penetrate targets.

Europe and the French have been in bed with terrorists and everyone knows it. Their philosophy is if you don't cause trouble, you can rest here, plan, rehearse, etc. Well, they got their asses handed to them and their people paid dearly.

When people are dying, calling and texting that they are cutting our heads off, slitting throats, etc., for two hours and no one is pushing to save them, consider it a monumental failure. I would even say borderline cowardice in my opinion. I do not know who gave the call to hold or not to push, but they should eat their own gun. Again, the French police and military failed their people. Their bloused boots and berets promote a false sense of competency. They look good, but their dapper look will not substitute for heart and a positive combat mindset.

For all we know is that France is now bombing a bunch of empty buildings in Syria, pumping up their chests and ignoring their failures at home.

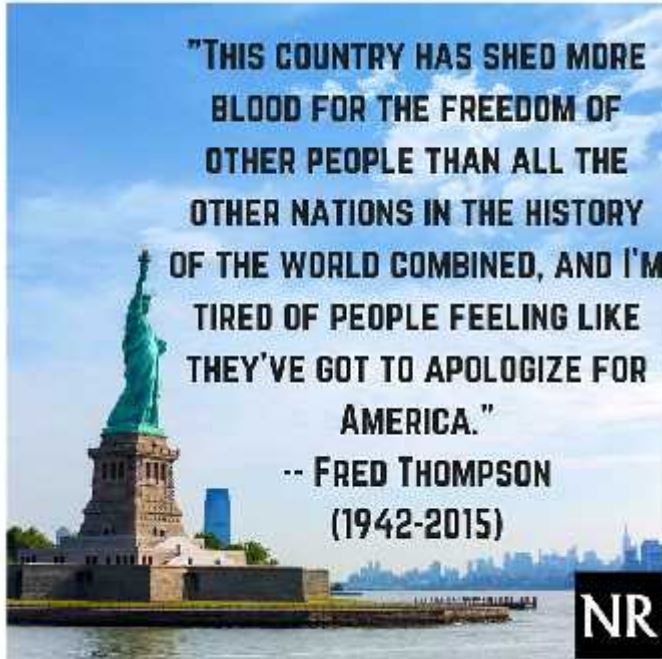

I am not surprised in the least about these attacks. Nor are any U.S. law enforcement or immigration enforcement officers you talk to as they deal with foreign contacts daily. We are being reconed, surveilled and actively penetrated by foreign nationals every day.

Further, our president is seeding key administration positions with Muslims, they are quietly extracting data and information as to strengths, weaknesses and capabilities.

BY ACCEPTING MILLIONS OF
"REFUGEES" FROM WAR TORN COUNTRIES INTO OUR COUNTRIES ALL WE ARE DOING IS INVITING THEIR WARS IN ALONG WITH THEM.
CHANGING THEIR LOCATION
DOESN'T CHANGE THEIR IDEOLOGY.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY

Turkey is a member of NATO in name only. They are a Muslim country, hate and kill the Kurds and have stood by and let ISIS murder without restriction. I hope Mr. Putin sends them a sincere message. Watching the ragheads shoot at their pilots from the ground is unacceptable and when he is ready, they will pay.

MEDIA BIAS

Our institutionalized media has become the enemy of the people. They have an agenda, a liberal one at that. They attack issues that are of no consequence while they let massive issues of corruption and incompetence by the Democratic Party slide by without a word.

When conservative politicians propose legitimate solutions to problems and they are crucified in the media. Maybe the media needs to look at the walls, fences and borders being fortified and Europe as we speak.

This is “selective journalism” at its best.

Below is an editorial I submitted to our local paper and that they rejected. I do try to speak out when the media allows it.....

Mr. Howe, thank you for your op-ed submission. We always appreciate your input. At this time though we choose not to run the attached letter. Please continue to submit future letters for consideration.

Master Sgt. Joshua L. Wheeler was killed in combat last week on a hostage rescue mission in Iraq. I did not know him, but I have known many like him. Thank you, Joshua, for your service.

It is routine for Democrats to misuse our military. In this case, our premier special operations unit conducted a hostage rescue missions on foreign soil to rescue Islamic soldiers who surrendered while Hillary Clinton was being questioned by Congress. Then video was immediately leaked and blamed on Kurdish forces.

I was in combat in Somalia over 20 years ago when Hillary's husband was being serviced in the White House by an intern. Bill Clinton had a habit of bombing a country anytime he had a difficult political situation and wanted to divert attention from it. Bill Clinton allowed 800,000 die in Rwanda under his watch. If you think he has the black population's back, he does not, unless it includes a vote.

Why rescue Iraqis? They surrendered, dropped their weapons and quit. We tried to help them evolve. Why risk American lives for a people that will not fight for themselves? Maybe now is the time to pull back and see how Darwin works things out.

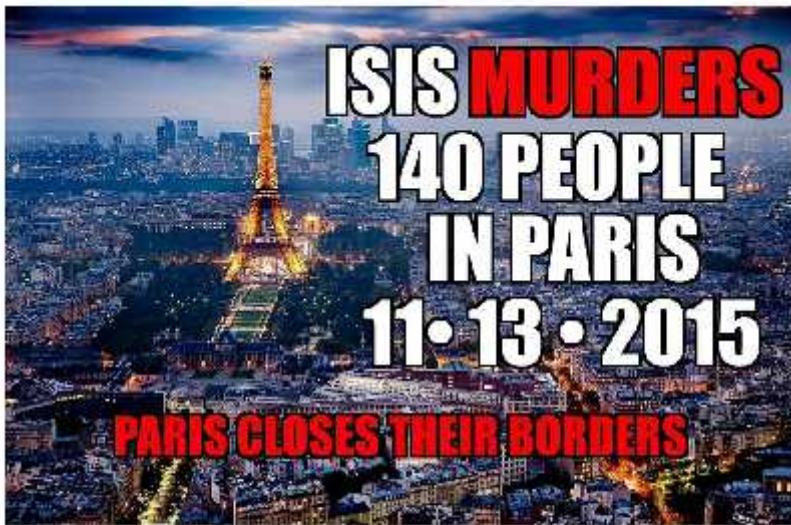

Why not rescue Christians? Christians are a better people and are worthy of our help and support. They are not sworn to kill us in their holy book. Attacks in the name of Islam are too numerous to mention. Islam is a cult and condones all sorts of conduct we detest. Islam has no place in our country and our future.

Our current president is a Muslim, if not Muslim sympathizer. His actions and inaction speak louder than words. As for moderate Islam, they say nothing when the west is attacked. Silence is consent.

Let your political representatives know that we should be killing the bad ones, saving the good ones and making sure our troops come home at the end of the day.

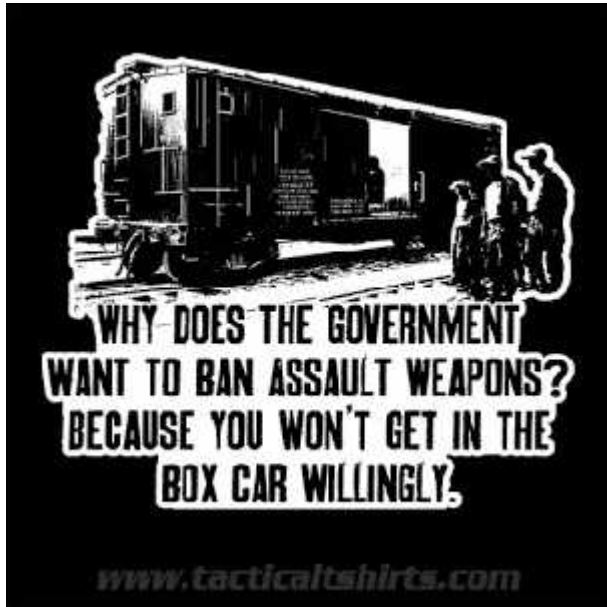

Again, Joshua, thank you for your service to our country and to those like you.

2nd AMENDMENT

Here are two FACTS to make a patriot smile:

- 1. In the history of mankind, it only takes 3% of a population to take up arms and WIN against a tyranny.
- 2. The largest army on earth, bar NONE, is the registered hunters from just three American states (and they know how to stalk and shoot).

MOTIVATION

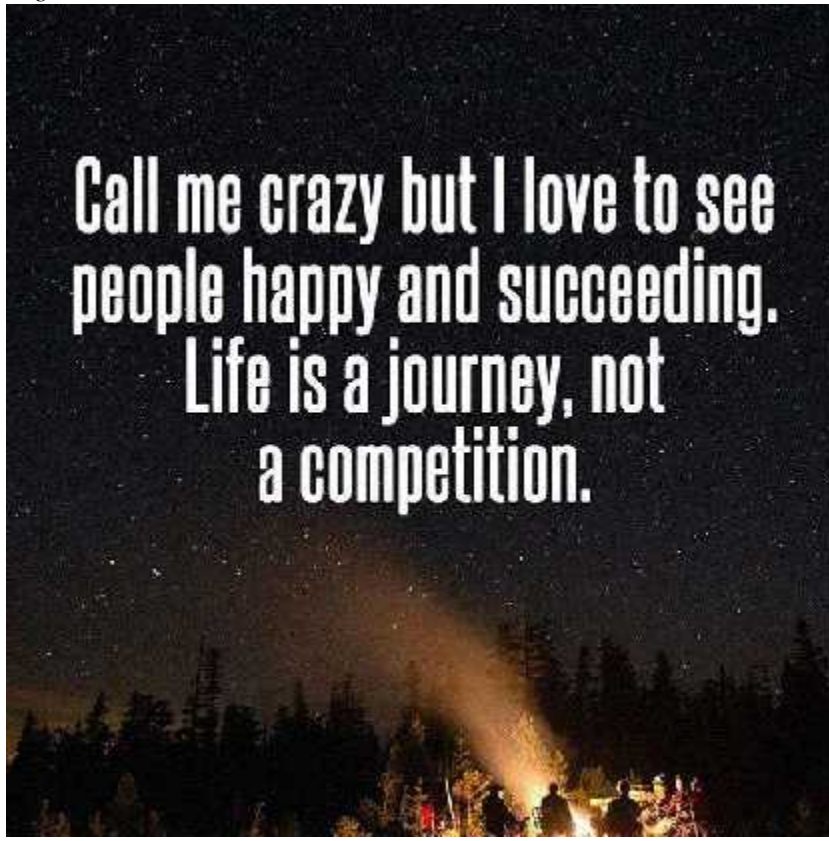

I have believed this all along. The same goes for the mission. If you take care of your soldiers, your mission will be accomplished. Leaders have used the term “Mission First” for years as an excuse to be less than stellar and while sometimes needlessly sacrificing those below them.

TRAINING NOTES:

I have been asked in class about my 3" high offset at 100 yard that I wrote about one time. I used that in the day when shooting bull, or SR (Service Rifle) 21 centers. If you aim at the base of the black on the SR21, the center of the bull is 3" high. This zero would get you a center hit. It would hit center at 200 yards and drop about 10-12" at 300.

I have been using a Point of Aim/Point of Impact zero for years and it works well. This means it hits where I cut with the sight at 100, drops 3-4" at 200 and "13-17" at 300 giving me a solid hit on vertical target (man) out to 300 without adjusting my point of aim.
